UNIT 3 SGG JOURNAL

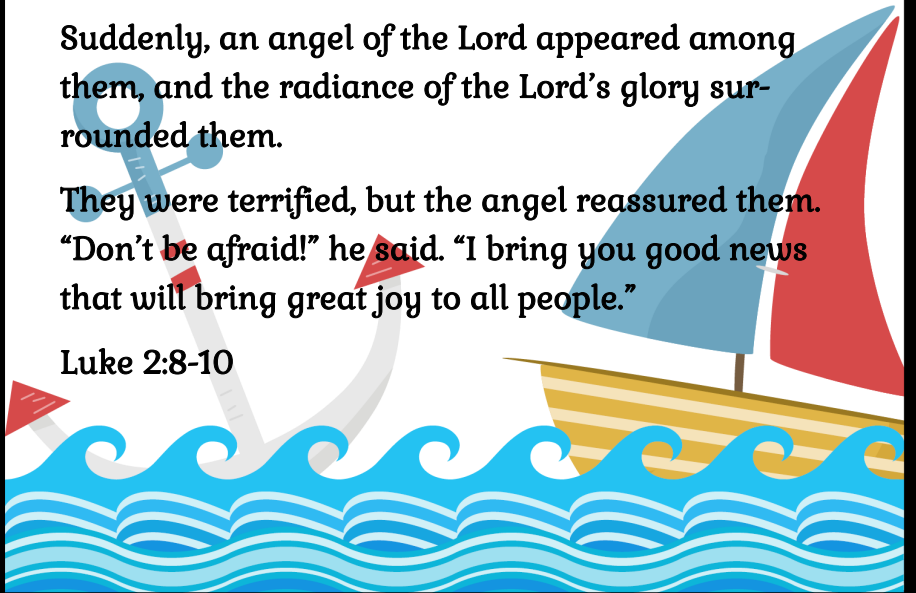

Memory Verse:

“That night there were shepherds staying in the fields nearby, guarding their flocks of sheep.

Suddenly, an angel of the Lord appeared among them, and the radiance of the Lord’s glory surrounded them.

They were terrified, but the angel reassured them. “Don’t be afraid!” he said. “I bring you good news that will bring great joy to all people.”

Scripture: Isaiah 61:1-11

Activity: Christmas Advent
Calendar

CHRISTMAS SINGING:

4th—2-5th N/S/W

8th—2-5 SC

OBSERVATION & APPLICATION:

Students will decorate a paper plate with a happy face on one side and a sad face on the other.

Read Isaiah 61:1-11 to the students.

Retell the story by using the following paraphrasing so the students can use their paper plates— when they hear what the people were experiencing, flip their plates to the sad face and when they hear what God was going to do to change things around for them, flip their plates to the happy face.

1. God sent Isaiah to speak good news.
2. The people who were broken-hearted :(would be healed. :)
3. The people who were captured :(would be freed. :)
4. The people who were bound in prison who should not be :(would be released.

Activity:

5. The people who were sad about their loss :(would be comforted. :)
6. Those who were crying :(would have joy. :)
7. Those whose buildings were knocked down :(would have new structures built up. :)
8. Those who had shame :(would have honor. :)

God took things that were not good and made them better. God gave the people hope! What do you want God to turn around for you and change? What do you want God to change for someone else and change?
